2011 University Battle Of Alberta

By Vlad Rekhson

This was the third instalment of what has now become a new traditional event on the ACA schedule. The two previous events took place in Calgary, but this year the tournament was held in the Edmonton Chess Club, on the weekend of February 5-6. The 2011 University Battle of Alberta tournament was very well organized by Roger Zhang and directed by Anastasia Kazakevich.

The University Battle of Alberta features a unique format for chess in Alberta. The event follows the normal Swiss rules and it is open to anyone; however, this is also a team event, since the University with the highest combined scores of its top 4 performance wins the team challenge.

All in all, a total of 31 participants took part in the event. Those included members of the University of Alberta, University of Calgary and the University of Lethbridge.

A total of 7 rounds were played. The first 5 were played on Saturday with the active time control, while the remaining 2 were played on Sunday with the regular time control.

Tournament players

The winners were National Masters; Peter Kalisvaart of the UofA and Alex Yam. They both scored 5.5/7. Third was shared by Dan Kazmaier of UofC, Damon Macleod of UofA and Richard Wang who will play for a University in approximately 6 years from now!

The team event was won by the University of Alberta with 18.5 points. University of Calgary finished second with 16.5 and

Party at the Boston Pizza

University of Lethbridge scored 11.5 points.

I believe that the main goals of this event were met, as players from the different university clubs met, socialized and played chess together. The event also attracted a total of 12 previously unrated participants. A truly great number for Alberta Chess!

We will see the university participants next year at the Calgary Chess Club.

ACA hires new Executive Director

Vlad Rekhson has been hired by the ACA as Executive Director as of February 15th. Tony Ficzer was unable to continue in the position any longer and the ACA reviewed at least 3 applicants for the job. We wish Tony all the best in the future and thank him for the work he has done in the past for the ACA.

Vlad has a wealth of experience as an organizer, FIDE Arbiter and is well known in Alberta chess. Vlad will take on all existing duties of the position and will work closely with the ACA board to handle the ACA's business affairs.

If you have any questions or concerns relating to Alberta chess, please contact Vlad by email: vrehkson@yahoo.ca or by phone: 403-970-8032.

Schleinich Memorial

By Tony Ficzer

The Schleinich Memorial is held each year in memory of John Schleinich. Tradition has it that this event is run in sections of six players in round robin format. We were able to run two full sections of six players at the top and decided to hold an eight player swiss at the bottom.

We were able to broadcast all the games in the A section live on the internet, thanks to the Edmonton Chess Club who provided the DGT boards. The website also carried standings and crosstables throughout the tournament. The audience was mostly from Alberta but approximately 20% came from other locations in Canada and around the world (believe it or not!).

The A section was both CFC and FIDE rated. Knut Neven and Roy Yearwood finished 1st & 2nd to split the money with 4/5. Knut gave up his point to Sean Perron while Roy lost to Knut in round 1.

The B section saw Brian Miller go undefeated with 4/5 to take clear 1st. Brian drew with Chris Kuczaj and Bill Bentley. 2nd place went to current Alberta Junior Champion, David Miller, of Grande Prairie with 3.5/5. Adie Todd was home for the holidays and graced the tournament with her participation, playing in the B section.

The C section was made up of juniors for the most part. Diwen Shi had little trouble disposing of his opposition to go 5/5 to take 1st all alone. Chenxi Zhao continues to improve and finished clear 2nd with 3.5/5.

This is a Road Warrior event

Sponsored by the Alberta Chess Association

Next year may see some changes in the format of this event. While sectionals provide even competition, they are more difficult to organize and are likely to experience more problems from an organizational point of view prior to the start of an event. Attendance was up this year so the low attendance from 2010 may have just been an anomaly.

Thanks to Jim Daniluk for his help in getting the players out and thanks to both Deweese Wood and Bob Macfie for their help during the event.

Calgary Chess Club News

New Year Open

January 4-February 1

The Calgary Chess Club held its first event of 2011 with the New Year Open. This 5 round CFC rated swiss was free for all Calgary Chess Club members. Directed by Tony Ficzero, there were 13 players registered.

Roy Yearwood continued his winning ways to take 1st with 4/5. Brian Miller was the only player to take a point of Roy in round 3. Vlad Rekhson and Brian Miller tied for 2nd-3rd with 3.5/5. The last round also saw Terry Chaisson and Frank Kluytmans enter to take up the slack.

Speeding on Ice

February 8

This event was held on the Tuesday following the New Year Open. The speed tournament was well attended with 18 players in total taking part. There were plenty of spills and thrills throughout the evening with many exciting games. David Zhang made his return to the club after a long absence and won the event with 11/14. Alex Yam took 2nd with 10.5/14. Alex was a late entry and things might have been different if he had shown up in time for the first round. As it went, Alex was lucky against Ivan Kornelo where he scored 1.5/2. Ivan missed a perp in the first game and went down in flames. Biggest upset of the tournament was scored by Krishneel (Krish) Singh, however, he left early and the prize went to Ted Borowski.

Calgary Closed & Reserves

The annual Calgary Closed is an eight player round robin, both CFC and FIDE rated. Running each Tuesday evening from February 15th through March 29th, this year the section is strong once again with Eric Hansen entering three days before the start of the event. Other players include Alex Yam, Erik Tam, Jean-Francois Wen, Roy Yearwood, Sean Perron, Vlad Rekhson and Jim Daniluk, bringing the average

CFC rating to 2195. The winner receives the bulk of the prize money plus $400 towards expenses to a tournament of their choice.

The Reserve section has 17 players registered after the first week. Prizes are made up of the bulk of entry fees plus $100 donated by the club. Players can still register in the first three rounds. Standings and games are available on the tournament webpage.

www.calgarychess.com/2011CCR.html

2011 Calgary International

The executive of the Calgary Chess Club voted in favour of hosting the 4th edition of the Calgary International Chess Classic. Full details are not yet available, but the dates will be May 19-23. The International section will be a 10 player round robin with guaranteed IM norm possibilities. The event may be upgraded to GM norm status if fundraising goes well.

There will be several active fundraisers held on Sunday's leading up to the main event. There will also be a variety of side events, simuls, lectures and the Calgary International Reserve section, will be a 6 player CFC/FIDE rated swiss, running from May 21-23. The tournament plans on broadcasting all games from the International section live on the internet using DGT boards.

Other details will be available in the coming weeks. The tournament website should be up in early March. Visit the Calgary Chess Club website for details.

Trumpeter Classic

By Tim Pradzinski

The Trumpeter Classic crowned a brand new champion this year! Roy Yearwood took the honors with 4.5 out of 5 points. David Miller and John Quiring each had 4 points to tie for second place.

In the Under 1750 section, Phil Lefkowitz and Stephen Stone each had 3 points to tie for 1st in that section. In the Under 1600 section, Rick Braitenbach had 2 points and received a copy of Jeremy Silman's End-game Course book.

All in all, the tournament was a success and the Grande Prairie Chess Club would like to thank all of the people who played in this year's event. Currently, we are in negotiations to move the Trumpeter Classic to the first weekend in June for the 2012 chess season and beyond. Many of you have never seen Grande Prairie in the warmer months so that news is probably a welcome one to many!

BEYOND ALBERTA

2011 Berkeley International

This annual event took place from January 2-8, 2011 at the Berkeley Chess School in Berkeley, California. With over $7,500 in the prize fund and the chance to earn a GM or IM norm, the lure was too much for Dale Haessel. Dale made the trip once again. I know Dale has played in Berkeley at least once before as well.

Dale finished with a respectable 4.5/10 in a very strong field. Had Dale been able to earn another half point, he would have tied for 1st for the top Under 2300 prize. With 11 GMs and 12 IMs, the competition was tough. Dale scored reasonably well against his IM competition, defeating IM Amanov in the first round. Dale even faced one of the tournament organizers, IM David Pruess, but was unable to win that game.

A total of 58 players were in the section and first place was taken by GM Loek van Wely with 8/10. 2nd place went to GM Sergey Erenburg with 7.5/10, while 3rd place was taken by GM Magesh Panchanathan with 7/10. If that name sounds familiar it is because Magesh won the 2009 Edmonton International.

Calgary Youth Chess Championship

By Roy Yearwood & Simon Ong

On January 2nd and 3rd, the annual Calgary Youth Chess Championship took place at the Calgary Chess Club. There were a total of 17 players participating in the tournament. They were grouped into sections where they battled against players their own age. Winner of each age section were awarded a medallion, an official Calgary YCC T-shirt and funding to play at the Alberta Youth Chess Championship. Funding is provided by the Calgary Chess Club.

There were two age sections with one player: Under 8 and Under 18. Even though both of these players won the tournament by default, they played against relatively strong oppositions and performed very well. The Under 8 and Under 18 champions were Ian Zhao and Raymond Ong, respectively. Ian managed to score 2/3 against U10 players, whereas Raymond scored 3/3 against U16 players.

There were 3 players competing in the Under 10 section. The overall winner was John Vaganov, a new player from Russia. John scored flawlessly. The other two players were Albert Lambino and Jonas Alcantara who scored 0/2 and 1/2, respectively.

Winners of the other sections were Diwen Shi (Under 12 Champion), Chenxi Zhao (Under 14 Champion), and Yuekai Wang (Under 16 Champion).

Thanks to all participants for playing the first Calgary tournament of the New Year and congratulation to all the section winners and good luck in Edmonton.

There will be regular chess lesson for youth at the Calgary Chess Club starting January 14th. See Calgary chess club website for details.

Here are a few games from the event with annotations provided by Roy Yearwood.

Sicilian Sveshnikov [B33]

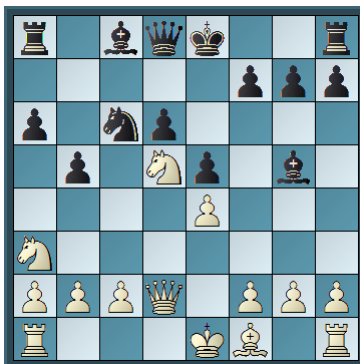

1.e4 c5 2.♟f3 ♘c6 3.d4 cxd4 4.♘xd4 ♟f6 5.♘c3 e5

This is the Sveshnikov variation of the Sicilian. It features the backward pawn on the d-file and the question of whether Black will have enough counter-play to compensate for this weakness.

6.♘db5 d6 7.♙g5 a6 8.♘a3 b5 9.♘d5 ♙e7 10.♙xf6 ♙xf6 11.♙d2

Better is ♙d3 or c3.

11...♙g5

12.♘e3 0-0 13.0-0-0

This is an aggressive plan for White.

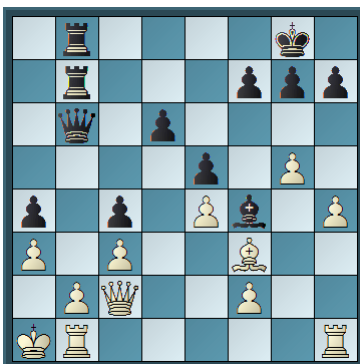

13...♙b6 14.h4 ♙h6 15.♙e2 ♙e6 16.g4 ♙f4 17.♘b1 ♘a5 18.c3 ♙fd8 19.♙f3

Black has a comfortable position because of White's inaccuracy on move 11.

19...♘c4 20.♘axc4 ♙xc4 21.♘xc4 bxc4 22.♙c2 a5 23.♙d1 ♙db8 24.g5

Better is a4.

24...♙b7 25.♘a1 a4 26.a3 ♙ab8 27.♙b1 1-0.

Unfortunately, Black lost on time. After 27...♙c5 with the idea of ...♙b3, Black has a small but persistent initiative. I guess you have to play theoretical position quickly to avoid time pressure.

2.c3 Sicilian [B22]

1.e4 c5 2.c3 ♟f6 3.e5 ♘d5 4.♙c4 ♘b6 5.♙x7+??

This is a terrible error. White should know better. If you going to play theoretical openings, you should know what to do.

5...♘x7 6.♙f3+ ♘e8 7.♘h3 ♘c6 8.e6 dxe6 9.♘g5 ♙d5 10.♙f7+ ♘d8 11.0-0?? ♙xg5 12.d4 ♙f6 13.♙h5 cxd4 14.♙g5

White tries to play like Tal but does not know enough about the principles required to play in this manner.

14...♙g6 15.♙xg6 hxg6 0-1.

Better is ...♙e8.

9.0-0 ♙c7 10.♙e1 h6 11.♙h4 g5 12.♙g3 ♙xg3 13.fxg3 ♙xg3

While Black has won a pawn, he has lost some control of his ♖-side's light squares and control the b1-h7 diagonal. White must act quickly as the pawn plus will soon tell

14.♙e2

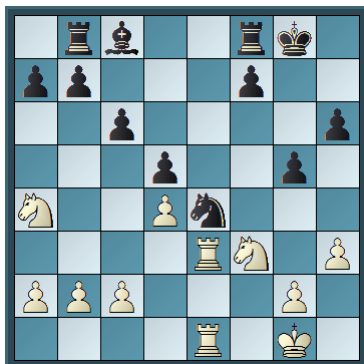

Better would have been 14.♘e2 in order to transfer the Knight to the ♖-side. Also, it makes way for the pawn to go to c4 for some initiative in the centre.

14...♖h5 15.♗e1!? ♗xe1+ 16.♞axe1 ♖f4
17.♞e3 ♖xd3 18.♞xd3 ♖f6 19.♞de3

Better might be 19.♞e6 closing e-file. One of the ways to win when you're up material is to shut down all of your opponent's counter-play.

19...♞b8 20.♖a4 ♖e4

This is an easy position for Black to play. He can make different miss-steps, but because of his material superiority and pawn plus and solid position, White finds it very hard to make an impression in order to gain counter-play

21.♖e5 f6 22.♖d3 ♗d7 23.♖ac5 ♗f5

Torre Attack [A46]

1.d4 ♖f6 2.♖f3 e6 3.♗g5

This is the Torre attack. This is an excellent opening for White. The former Alberta Champion for youth, Richard Wang, make this a standard part of his opening theory. This opening poses some difficult problems for juniors.

3...c5 4.c3 ♖c6 5.♖bd2 ♗e7 6.e4 b6
7.♗d3 ♗b7 8.0-0 0-0 9.♞e1 ♞c8 10.♗f1 d5
11.h3 cxd4 12.♗xf6

Better is e5 according to Diwen Shi

12...♗xf6 13.cxd4 ♖xd4 14.e5 ♖xf3+
15.♞xf3 ♗g5 16.♖b3 ♗d7 17.♗d3 ♞c7
18.h4 ♗e7

Nicholas is outplaying Diwen quite easily thus far.

19.♖d4 f6 20.♞h5 g6?

Better is ...f5 as ...g6 gives White at least a draw, but of course, he wants more!

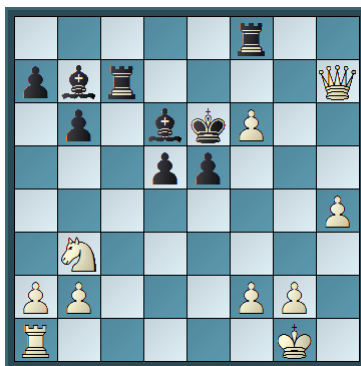

21.♗xg6 hxg6 22.♞xg6+ ♖h8 23.♞h6+
♖g8 24.♞e3 ♗c5 25.♞g3+ ♖f7

An unfortunate turn of events for Black. Unfortunately, White's growing initiative starting at move 19 has resulted in the loss of a Queen. Oh well, sometimes an accident will happen.

26.♞g7+ ♖e8 27.♞xd7 ♖xd7 28.exf6 e5

White makes good use of the overloaded Bishop on c5 to advance his ♖-side pawns.

29.♖b3 ♗d6 30.♞h7+ ♖e6

31.♖d4+ exd4 32.♞e1+ ♗e5 33.♞xc7 1-0.

Road Warrior

Chris White of La Crete won 1st place in the 2010 Road Warrior contest. Chris accumulated 52 points to take 1st and the $400 prize. Roy Yearwood of Calgary took clear 2nd with 33.5 points, good enough for $200. Phil Holmstrom and Ali Razzaq, both of Edmonton tied 3rd-4th with 31.5 points, each earning $100. David Miller of Grande Prairie finished 5th with 31 point, collecting $100. The 6th and final spot was taken by Edmonton's Rick Pedersen with 28.5 points, also earning him $100.

The budget for 2011 is smaller than last year with just $300 up for grabs. It is possible that sponsorship money might be obtained to top up the prize fund.

The points have not been updated for the University Battle of Alberta (should be available by February 21). After 2 events, here are the top 10 players:

1	Paul Viminitz	Lethbridge	11.0

Chocolate prizes a hit at Pre-Valentine's Tournament

By Bruce Thomas

Due to Edmonton Chess Club being a busy place with other tournaments during February, including Alberta Youth Chess Championships, the usual Society of Alberta Chess Knights (SACK) Valentine's Tournament had to be held January 30. A Valentine's theme was still recognized with the awarding of eight hearts filled with candy treats.

As usual, a draw was held for each section of players. Thanks to Rob McCullough, Bruce Thomas, Colin Broughton for directing the tournament, to Kathy and Tony Chan for operating the snack concession and players for participating.

Results:

Section A: 1. Noah Hoffner 2. Dennis Situ, 3-4. David McCullough and Jakob Kaiser

Section B: 1. Ian McCullough 2. Henry Song 3. Sebastien Despres 4. Lukas Muliawan

Section C: 1. Allan Stanislus 2. Kaining Lin 3-4. Kaixin Wang and Zachary Kirsch

Section D: 1. David Yao 2. Darren Li 3. Rayden Lin 4. Austin Hesse 5-6. Alex Broughton and Filip Stevanovic

Section E: 1. Vinh Nguyen 2. Adam Mawani 3. John Cervantes 4-5. Boris Stevanovic and Ibrahim Elmallah, 6. Jeremy Kerr

Section F: 1. Raghu Manohar 2. Kevin Stanislus 3. YingTu Li 4-6. Diana Muzyka, Patrick Cervantes and Zachary Chaisson

Section G: 1. Praanesh Sureshkumar 2. Alvin Wu 3. Stefan Stanescu 4. Dean Holbertson 5. Siddhartha Chitrakar

Section H: 1. Alex Apostulo 2. Ada Broughton 3. Haresh Sureshkumar 4. Jacques Zhang 5. Andrew Chan.
